Dear Business Owner and/or Friend of MURC,

The Midtown Urban Renaissance Corporation (MURC) is excited to announce our 6th Annual "Jeans & Jewels" Fundraiser on Friday, November 4, 2011. This year we are honoring professionals that have unselfishly donated their time and resources to our organization. They are Rev. Paul Brown, pastor of First Pentecostal Church; Tom Clark, Executive Director of CityWorks; Patricia Cooper-Powell, Consultant and owner of First Source Solutions; and Marc Steinberg, Attorney at Law.

Since 1998, MURC has been the recognized nonprofit working with the Township of Neptune, and the nonprofit developer, CityWorks, advocating for redevelopment and quality of life improvements, while also acting as a resource for residents in the Midtown area. We are proud to announce the near completion of the 2nd project on W. Lake Avenue – the "Midtown Community Park" located across from "Jane H. Booker Family Health Center" 1828 W. Lake Avenue, which opened to the public on June 8, 2010.

As a viable business and friend, we are asking for your support with our ad journal, gift auction, purchase of tickets, or a monetary donation to help us continue our notable good works as volunteers in the community. Forms are attached.

Ad Journal, Gift Auction and Monetary Donations will be recognized at the dinner dance and on the MURC website, www.neptunemurc.com. We are a NJ based 501 (C)(3) nonprofit so your donation is tax deductible. Please call our office to discuss details (732) 988-4400, if necessary.

On behalf of MURC's officers and board of trustees, we appreciate your support and thank you in advance for your generosity!

Sincerely yours,

MURC Fundraising Committee
